

CHRIS KOZINA
Chief of Staff

Chris Kozina is chief of staff for MillerCoors. He is responsible for managing and driving the priorities of the MillerCoors Leadership Team to ensure an enterprise approach to key business challenges and opportunities.

Most recently, Chris served as vice president of information services and chief information officer for Miller Brewing Company, named to the position in March 2007.

Before joining Miller, Chris was at Accenture as equity client partner – global consumer products, where he worked with clients from North America, South America and Europe in the grocery retail; household and personal care; food and beverage; and other industries. At Accenture, Chris was lead executive for the Miller business.

Chris earned a bachelor's degree in finance and banking and urban land economics from the University of Wisconsin and completed his graduate studies in the Applied Executive Business Management Program at Northwestern University's Kellogg Graduate School of Business.
