

ED McBRIEN

President, Sales and Distributor Operations

Ed is president of MillerCoors sales and distributor operations, responsible for driving the company's sales volume, profit contribution and share growth. Previously, he was president of the western division. Before that, he was chief revenue officer for Coors Brewing Company.

Ed joined Coors in October 1994 as the retail account director responsible for chain account business in the Midwest. He was promoted to vice president, key accounts in 2004.

He held a number of sales positions at Procter & Gamble for 13 years before joining Coors.

Ed earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Northwood University in Midland, Michigan. He sits on the Board of Trustees for Northwood University.