

Greg Tierney

Chief Financial Officer

Greg is responsible for establishing strong financial management and commercial disciplines for the company and reporting financial performance to its shareholders. Prior to his current role, Greg served as MillerCoors vice president of financial planning and corporate controller. Greg began his career in beer with Miller Brewing Company in 1998 as a corporate financial analyst, and has also held leadership roles on both the sales and strategy teams.

Prior to MillerCoors, he held positions with public accounting firm Ernst & Young in Milwaukee. Greg is a CPA, and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison.