

KELLY GREBE
Chief Legal Officer

Kelly Grebe is chief legal officer for MillerCoors. She is responsible for partnering with the business to develop practical and lawful solutions to key issues while considering business interests and legal constraints or risks.

Previously, Kelly served as chief legal & corporate services officer at MillerCoors. In that role, she had oversight for essential corporate services (office, real estate and security) that allowed MillerCoors to operate in a safe, productive and ethically responsible way. Kelly began her legal career at Quarles & Brady law firm before joining Miller Brewing Company in 1997.

Kelly serves on the board of Oregon-based Hop Valley, one of MillerCoors craft beer partners. She represents MillerCoors on the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club advisory board, complementing her passion for baseball and the Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce Board (MMAC). She is also on the Children’s Hospital of Wisconsin Foundation Board and a member of the Quality Committee, helping her to be involved in an organization she has actively admired and supported for years. She most recently was appointed to the Board of Directors for the United Way of Greater Milwaukee and Waukesha County.

Kelly earned both her bachelor’s degree and a Juris Doctor law degree from the University of Wisconsin – Madison. She is a member of the Wisconsin and Illinois bar associations and was named Milwaukee Business Journal’s Top Corporate Counsel in 2012.